

The Music con Brio program options for 2022-23 are:

1. The ONLINE option, which includes online weekly 30-minute solo lessons only (No group classes and no Community Concert participation) ($420 per semester)
2. The IN-PERSON/PARTNER option, which includes in-person weekly 30-minute partner lessons and in-person weekly 45-minute group classes, plus participation in Community Concerts ($450 per semester)
3. The IN-PERSON/SOLO option, which includes in-person weekly 30-minute solo lessons and in-person weekly 45-minute group classes, plus participation in Community Concerts ($650 per semester)
4. The HYBRID option, which includes online weekly 30-minute solo lessons and in-person weekly 45-minute group classes, plus participation in Community Concerts ($650 per semester)

***First year students are ONLY eligible to register for the in-person option with partner lessons and group class. Continuing students will be admitted to solo lessons as space permits.***

We offer sliding scale tuition to ensure that no family is turned away from Music con Brio due to financial need. Depending on household income, family size, and other extenuating factors such as divorce, illness, and job loss, we can offer a 25%, 50%, or 75% reduction in tuition, or even more with the support of our Student Scholarship Fund. For more information, please email tuition@musicconbrio.org